Yes, There are. The last sentence of para 2 of Fin. No. 6027-99 dated 2.4.07 states "that no officer will be eligible for promotion to the special grade of Senior Asst. Comrs., unless he shall have fully qualified himself by passing all the prescribed tests". It is believed that this cannot be enforced by the audit office unless there is an express direction by Govt. that it should be applied as an audit ruling. And so this point was not touched upon in the note by this office.

Mr. N. Subba Rao has not passed the "Civil" Examinations. Similarly Messrs V. A. Rajagopalacharlu, K. Krishna Iyer & Browning have not passed some of the prescribed tests, but still they were promoted to the Senior Asst. Comrs. grade by Govt.

It is plainly the duty of the audit office to point out all such points when a case is referred for opinion. I am not sure if some the appointments referred to above were not made as the Sel. qualification aspect was not clearly brought to the notice of Govt. A/c Sec. will please note this for future guidance.

Mr. Secy.

This is not correct. The point was considered by Govt. and Messrs Krishna Iyer & Browning were given the promotion, as they belonged to Sch. A. & the prohibition applied only to Offrs of Sch. B. in para 5 of G.O. of 2 April 07. Mr. Rajagopala Achari was treated as a special case. Vide notes in file 22-08-07 Letter for 26/8/11 Nov. 08.

Mr Nagar Subba Rau is the Senior officer among Asst Comms 1st class, entitled to promotion in the temporary vacancy referred to above. But under the G.O. of 2nd April 07 (last sentence of para 2) he ~~is appears to be~~ disqualified for such promotion, as he has not passed the prescribed exam^ns, Civil Pls I & II, ~~unless~~ it is intended to take into consideration his age*, length of service* and the approved nature of such service. Mr Rajaratna Mudaliar belonged to the same schedule as this officer and the disqualification according to the G.O. of April 07 applied to his case also, but he was given promotion to the Senior Asst. Comr's grade, ~~for~~ on certain special considerations.

* 52 years

* 27 years.

If Mr Subba Rau is however, to be passed over, the officer, next in seniority, entitled to the temporary promotion is Mr D.K. Darashah Asst. Comr 1st class - Survey Deptt.

The existence of the vacancy in the scale of Senior Asst Comms. has been verified by the Audit Deptt. The selection of the officer to be promoted to such vacancy is for orders.

I do not know if it is always necessary to make these very short time promotions — especially when as in cases of Mr Nar. Rao & Mr D'Souza, no additional salary will become payable.

If it is considered indispensable, I have no objn to the promotions proposed.

Dr. 39-11

Submitted to His Highness.

Consequent on the appointment of Mr.M.A. Narayana Iyengar, Senior Assistant Commissioner, as Registrar of Co-Operative Societies, a temporary promotion to the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioner may be given to one of the Assistant Commissioners with effect from 24th April 1911. The Senior of the Assistant Commissioners in the first class is Mr. Nagar Subba Rao. He is not eligible to be promoted to the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioner as he has not passed Civil Parts I and II. The next officer eligible for promotion is Mr.D.K.Darashah. The Councillors agree to the temporary promotion of Mr. D.K.Darashah as Senior Assistant Commissioner from 24th April 1911 to 30th June 1911. This may be approved.

*On Rs 700/-

2. Mr.Darashah's promotion* as Deputy Superintendent of Revenue Survey with effect from 1st July 1911, creates a temporary and long term vacancy in the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioner. The next next officer eligible is Mr.D.M.Narasinga Rao, Sub Judge. His promotion as Senior Assistant Commissioner is agreed to by both the Councillors and may be approved with effect from 1st July 1911.

3. In addition to the above vacancy, there have been some short vacancies in the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioner owing to the absence of Mr.K.Krishna Iyer on privilege leave and as Officiating Deputy Commissioner of Chitaldrug. Mr. D'Souza, Assistant Commissioner and Under Secretary to Government is entitled to this temporary promotion in the order of seniority. This may be approved.

4. The question raised by the 2nd Councillor (Mr.H.V.Nanjundaiya) whether such temporary promotions are indispensable has its answer in the fact that the periods of such temporary promotions count for the annual increment when the officer is confirmed or has acted for more than a year. I think the question was once raised and the answer accepted by the Financial Secretary as being in accordance with the system in force in British India.
